Welcome to our duck cooking classes

We ensure you have fun while we take the mystery out of cooking duck. With our range of duck cooking class themes and formats we cater for the novice – in our Duck Demo class, and the advanced home chef with our Duck Hands On class.

All classes are presented by trained demonstrators and chefs in a relaxed, fun environment held in our state of the art retail duck showroom located in Port Melbourne.

For up to date information on duck cooking class themes, times and prices, log onto our website luvaduck.com. Book a class then duck down and have a drink on us.

Duck Demo Class

Let our trained demonstrators and chefs show you how easy it is to cook a whole duck, duck breasts and duck legs along with a host of easy duck dishes.

Grab a friend, a loved one or a gang of up to 30 people and enjoy a juice or Latte on arrival and then prepare for plenty of duck tastings throughout the class. Take home all the recipes and impress your family and friends.

Days	Times
Weekdays	10 – 11.30am
Saturdays	10 – 11.30am
Weeknights	6 – 7.30pm

Duck Participation Class

This is a duck demo class where you join in! Ideal for groups and clubs. Let the Luv-a-Duck team demonstrate the ease of cooking duck with your help, while the group enjoys the duck tastings and the duck games and quizzes.

Ideal for corporate, school, charity and team building groups of up to 30 people.

Days	Times
Weekdays	10am – 12pm 2 – 4pm 5.30 – 7.30pm

Duck Hands On Class

Now it's time to roll up your sleeves and put on a Luv-a-Duck apron. In this class you will prepare a themed duck dish selection with tips and ideas from our chef that will impress any discerning duck lover. Dine in style at the Chef's Round Table and enjoy the delicious duck dishes you have prepared with a glass of wine.

Ideal for couples, friends or groups of up to 10 people.
